JANUARY 10, 2017 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 78 NO. 15

THIS TUESDAY

Key Club Advisor and Temple City High School Guidance Counselor Cary Smith will give us an update on Key Club activities.

LAST TUESDAY

In our first meeting on the new year we were encouraged by VP Mike Lepore to be active in finding programs for us. In former years the VP was responsible for procuring speakers for the entire year. It morphed into members taking 1 month and being responsible for their month. Each member needs to step up and volunteer for a month. In your daily contacts with your sphere of influence you should be able to come up with at least 4 people that would want to share their hobby or favorite subject.

Some other suggestions were to look for newspaper stories for someone with an interesting hobby or human interest story. Next week we will have a sign-up sheet for your month. Mike Lepore really appreciates your help, and even if you know of a possible speaker please let him know.

Those helping feed the float decorators at the Rosemont Pavilion were Helen Marston, Steve and Lisa Montesanti, Matt Smith, and Dawn Tarin. We received a nice thank you note from new teacher to our district Diana Vasquez. Past Kiwanis Governor Tom Millham was here helping decorate the award winning Dole Float. Why he did not help with the Kiwanis float is another story. He also said that Jackie had her hip replaced recently. Jackie can now be called the bionic woman with all hips and knees replaced.
