FEBRUARY 7, 2017 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 78 NO. 19

THIS TUESDAY

Sue Matchett will talk about interesting things from 100 years ago.

LAST TUESDAY

New member Cynthia Vance, just completed her year-long service on the 2016-2017 Los Angeles County Civil Grand Jury. I must admit, this was an interesting insight into the Grand Jury. Another Temple City resident, Delora Brown was a member of the Jury several years ago.

Cindy was in City Hall one day in November 2014 and saw an application for service. She went through the application process and was selected as alternate juror #12. She eventually moved up to regular juror #14.

The primary function of the Civil Grand Jury is to investigate county, city, and joint-power agencies. This is a significant civil function. The Civil Grand Jury acts in a "watch-dog" function by examining, carefully and completely, the operations of various government agencies within Los Angeles County.

The Civil Grand Jury cannot investigate state or federal agencies as they lie outside their jurisdiction. Part of the investigation of governmental agencies includes the ability to audit operations, accounts, and records of officers and departments within the agency under investigation. The Civil Grand Jury is further charged with investigating individual complaints from citizens. By statute, the Civil Grand Jury is required to inquire regarding the conditions and management of all public prisons within the County of Los Angeles.

To carry out this function, the Civil Grand Jury is divided into committees, each of which concentrates on certain areas under investigation. These committees visit facilities, meet with officials, and develop recommendations for improving government operations. The Audit, Citizens Complaints, and Jail Committees are considered essential because of the Civil Grand Jury's mandate to audit the county, examine complaints from individual citizens, and inspect the jails.

Twenty-three citizens of Los Angeles County are sworn each July to serve as Civil Grand Jurors for 12 months. Membership on this body is a full-time commitment, 5 days a week and approximately 30 - 40 hours each week.

Cindy explained that all kinds of things happened while deliberating, romances, gossip, disagreements, and even physical fighting, two jurors were dismissed for actual fist fighting. They finally ended up with 19 jurors serving. Some other facts are: They are paid $60 a day plus 52 cents per mile, secrecy is a huge thing, $150,000 budget, they write reports for all 88 cities in Los Angeles County.

THINGS I WANT TO DO SOME DAY

A Texas man celebrated his birthday in a big way, Wednesday, when he jumped out of a plane, matching the record for the oldest United States citizen to do so.

Alfred 'Al' Blaschke was asked when he turned 97 if he wanted to take the leap. He said, "No thank you, I'll wait until I'm 100."

He stuck to his word and, surrounded by family from all across the country, made the trip to Salado's Skydive Temple and got on the plane.

I was thinking of our very own Dan Snell who made the jump five years ago at Lake Elsinore at the age of 90. I am anxious to witness Dan make another jump on his 100th birthday in five years.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"First it is necessary to stand on your own two feet. But the minute a man finds himself in that position, the next thing he should do is reach out his arms."
