JANUARY 22, 2019 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 80 NO. 16

THIS TUESDAY

Ellen S. Simon from the HEAR Center will. Committed to HEAR Center's 60 year legacy of service to the community, Ellen continues to work collaboratively with HEAR Center's Board of Directors to ensure they are here for another 60 years to serve all those who need our services.

LAST TUESDAY

President Cindy has been in Kiwanis for only a few years, but has already made herself known in the District.

Besides hob-knobbing with the International President, she helped decorate Rose Parade floats and help feed the volunteers.

The first Kiwanis Rose Float appeared in 1923. In 1986 our floats were graced a permanent place in the parade. The Pasadena Rose Float has raised thousands of dollars to support the building of the Kiwanis Float. It takes over 7,000 volunteers to make it happen with most of them being Key Clubbers. Kudos to Craig Wallace for all his work. It cost about $250,000 to build the Kiwanis Float. Because of all the labor that the Key Club and other members provide in building not only our float, but others, the decorator applies that money saved in labor to the Kiwanis Float.

The Kiwanis Rose Float District Committee of the California-Nevada-Hawaii District of Kiwanis International serves the worldwide organization by raising funds and coordinating the building and decorating effort to place the Kiwanis name and message before 400 million people in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses every New Years Day.

Dawn Tarin said the only thing better than a root canal is the Coronation of the 75th Camellia Festival Royal Court. The festivities take place this Saturday at Live Oak Park at 7 p.m..

Placemat updates for the Pancake Breakfast are being made. Who knew our pancake griddle was worth $5,600? Jim "handyman" Robuck guarantees that a new valve will do the trick. He should know since he has a new valve in his chest. Dawn will have pancake tickets ready for us to sell next week.

Congratulations to our Key Club for securing a grant of $1,300 from Kiwanis International. Steve Montesanti has been nominated by your editor as Temple City's Outstanding Older American. Steve is also announcing we will have regular meeting at North Wood's Inn to celebrate our Sweethearts. Fern Vizcarra might need counseling from Joan, he announced that he is the boss at his house.

Matt Smith is announcing the February 6 Ronald McDonald Meals of Love. The theme is chicken with the Main Dish by Steve Montesanti and Helen Marston, Salad by Dawn Tarin and Bob Rodenbucher, Bread by Dave Seltman, Drinks by Cindy Vance, Dessert by Ron Dorazio and Kathy Perini. Bob Rodenbucher is the driver.
