SEPTEMBER 18, 2018 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 79 NO. 51

THIS TUESDAY

Mary Salcedo with Autumn Years Senior Meals will explain this new partnership with the city to provide "Meals of Wheels" for seniors. We will also have a club vote for Cindy Vance as President for 2018-2019.

LAST TUESDAY

Our program speakers for the day were father and son team, Pablo and Michael Pomes. Pablo immigrated from communist Cuba in the 1980's in search of a better life.

He opened his first Allstate Insurance Agency on Las Tunas in 1986. Through hard work and the support of his three children and wife Leticia, business has been good. He was at his first location for 23 years always owning the buildings he occupied and formerly occupied.

The family runs three agencies with Michael into the technology side of the business handling life and benefits. Pablo's agency works with over 100 insurance companies and has given hundreds of presentations on risk management. Michael is a proud alumni of Don Bosco Technical Institute. He got his start in business in 2008 when he first obtained his insurance licenses and has a passion for Team Building and motivating his partners while helping clients meet their investment and life insurance goals.

Having known this extraordinary family for over thirty years, I can attest that this is truly an American success story through hard work and a great family.

Our deepest sympathies go to John and Barbara Gera upon hearing of the loss of their beloved daughter Gail. We all remember seeing Gail at our evening meeting on August 21. A sympathy card was signed by members last Tuesday. John and Barbara will be at the installation on the 25th.

A message from Dan Snell, Jr through Mike Lepore: "Hi Mike, I want to let you know that we buried Dan and June together with mom's parents in Portland, Maine on Friday, August 31. We had over 25 family members present. Let me know how you are all doing. I often think of you and the Kiwanis members."
